

The screenshot shows a Windows terminal window with the title bar "powershell". The terminal interface includes tabs for "Problems", "Output", "Debug Console", "Terminal" (which is active), and "Ports". The terminal content shows two commands being executed in a directory path: "C:\Users\anand\OneDrive\Documents\ArduinoData\packages\esp8266\hardware\esp8266\3.1.2\libraries\ESP8266SdFat\examples\examplesV1#attic\HelloWorld\hello-world>". The first command is "gcc --version", which outputs "gcc.exe (MinGW.org GCC-6.3.0-1) 6.3.0" and a copyright notice. The second command is "g++ --version", which outputs "g++.exe (MinGW.org GCC-6.3.0-1) 6.3.0" and the same copyright notice. The terminal text is as follows:

```
PS C:\Users\anand\OneDrive\Documents\ArduinoData\packages\esp8266\hardware\esp8266\3.1.2\libraries\ESP8266SdFat\examples\examplesV1#attic\HelloWorld\hello-world> gcc --version

```

The screenshot shows a Windows IDE with a dark theme. On the left is the Explorer sidebar showing a project named 'hello-world' with files 'a.exe', 'hello.c', and 'README.md'. The main editor window displays a C program in 'hello.c' with the following code:

```

C hello.c > main()
You, 14 seconds ago | author (You)
1 #include<stdio.h>
2 int main(){
3     printf("hello world");
4     return 0;
5 }

```

At the bottom is a terminal window with the following commands and output:

```

PS C:\Users\anand\OneDrive\Documents\ArduinoData\packages\esp8266\hardware\esp8266\3.1.2\libraries\ESP8266SdFat\examples\examplesV1\attic\HelloWorld\hello-world> gcc hello.c
